INTELLECTUAL

I'm not perfect. I have many flaws, fears and insecurities. There are moments when I feel myself just about to snap. Finding ways to cope hasn't been easy. I found different methods over the years. In due time I found trust and ones to confide in when things feel shaking or when I feel alone. Because of that I was able to relax and to be myself.

ABILITY

I have an ear for music. I love to write songs. What I do is I think of characters or emotions and I begin to write a poem then I find help with fellow musicians and we add music and turn it into a song. I'm in the process of writing and creating my own brand of music.

WISDOM

I don't my best to learn from my mistakes and to do better in the future. I keep a kind eye on those around me. I try to be thoughtful towards people I care about not just so they can be there for me but so I can be a shoulder to lean on when they need me.
